HEARTFELT WORDS FROM PARENTS

ਮੇਰਾ ਬੱਚਾ ਗੁਨਗੁਨ ਸਿੱਖ The Unirise World School ਵਿੱਚ ਪੜ੍ਹਦਾ ਹੈ।
The Unirise World School ਦੀ ਪਹਿਲੀ ਵਿਸ਼ੇਸ਼ਤਾ ਇਹ ਹੈ ਕਿ ਹਰੇਕ ਜਮਾਤ ਵਿੱਚ ਬੱਚਿਆਂ ਦੀ ਗਿਣਤੀ ਬਹੁਤ ਸੀਮਤ ਹੈ ਜਿਸ ਕਰਕੇ ਹਰੇਕ ਬੱਚੇ ਵੱਲੋਂ proper ਧਿਆਨ ਦਿੱਤਾ ਜਾਂਦਾ ਹੈ। ਅਧਿਆਪਕਾਂ ਦੁਆਰਾ ਬੱਚਿਆਂ ਨੂੰ ਬਹੁਤ ਮਿਹਨਤ ਤੇ ਬਹੁਤ ਨਾਲ ਪੜ੍ਹਾਇਆ ਜਾਂਦਾ ਹੈ। ਸਕੂਲ ਦੀ ਵਿਮਾਰਤ ਖੁੱਲੀ, ਹਵਾਦਾਰ ਅਤੇ ਸਾਫ਼ ਸੁਥਰੀ ਹੈ।

ਮੇਰਾ ਬੱਚਾ ਗੁਣਗੁਣ ਸਿੱਖ ਪਿਛਲੇ 8 ਸਾਲਾਂ ਤੋਂ ਦੂਜੀ ਗਰੈਜ਼ ਟਰੀਜ਼ ਸਕੂਲ ਵਿੱਚ ਪੜ੍ਹ ਰਿਹਾ ਹੈ। ਸਕੂਲ ਅਨੁਭਵ ਬਹੁਤ ਚੰਗਾ ਰਿਹਾ ਹੈ। ਸਕੂਲ ਨੇ ਬੱਚੇ ਦੀ ਪੜ੍ਹਾਈ ਦੇ ਨਾਲ ਨਾਲ ਉਸ ਦੇ ਵਿਹਾਰ ਅਤੇ ਆਤਮ-ਵਿਸ਼ਵਾਸ ਵਿੱਚ ਵੀ ਬਹੁਤ ਸੁਧਾਰ ਕੀਤਾ ਹੈ। ਅਧਿਆਪਕ ਹਰ ਬੱਚੇ ਨੂੰ ਧਿਆਨ ਨਾਲ ਸਮਝਦੇ ਹਨ। ਸਕੂਲ ਵਿੱਚ ਸਹਿਮਤੀ ਨਾਲ ਹੀ ਸਹਿਯੋਗ ਬੁਣਾਈ ਰੱਖਦੇ ਹਨ। ਸਕੂਲ ਕੋਲ ਅਸੀਂ ਆਪਣੇ ਬੱਚੇ ਲਈ ਸਕੂਲ ਚੁਣਿਆ।

Human Body Quirks

1. Unique prints everywhere: Just like fingerprints, everyone has a unique tongue print.
2. Brain power: Your brain uses over a quarter of the oxygen used by the human body and is sometimes more active when you are asleep than when you are awake.
3. Stomach acid is strong: Your stomach acid (hydrochloric acid) is so strong it could dissolve metal, but a thick mucus lining protects your stomach's walls.
4. Shedding skin: Humans shed about 600,000 particles of skin every hour, meaning much of the dust in your home is actually dead skin cells.
5. You're taller in the morning: You are about a centimeter taller in the morning than in the evening because the cartilage discs in your spine compress throughout the day.
6. The "funny bone" isn't a bone: The tingly feeling you get when you hit your "funny bone" is actually an exposed nerve called the ulnar nerve.
7. Fast sneezes: A sneeze can travel at speeds of up to 100 miles per hour (mph).
8. Blushing is unique to humans: Humans are the only species known to blush.
9. No blood in the eye: The cornea is the only part of the body that has no blood supply; it gets its oxygen directly from the air.
10. Saliva production: The average person produces enough saliva in their lifetime to fill two swimming pools.

AI : A Double Edged Sword In Education & Employment

Artificial Intelligence (AI) is no longer a futuristic concept-It is here, shaping how we learn, live and increasingly, how we work. From adaptive learning platforms to automated administrative tools, AI has entered classrooms and diverse corridors across the world. Artificial Intelligence (AI) is transforming the world, and its impact on education and employment is significant. Like a double-edged sword, AI brings both opportunities and challenges.

THE BRIGHT SIDE

* IMPROVED LEARNING OUTCOMES

By analyzing performance data, AI helps identify gaps early, provides targeted feedback, and supports better academic results over time.

* SUPPORT FOR TEACHERS

AI automates routine tasks like grading and attendance, allowing teachers to focus more on mentoring, creativity, and critical thinking.

* NEW CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

AI creates demand for new roles in data science, machine learning, ethics, and system management, opening doors to future-ready careers.

THE DARK SIDE

* JOB DISPLACEMENT

Automation may replace repetitive and low-skill jobs, creating uncertainty and unemployment for workers who lack reskilling opportunities.

* SKILL EROSION

Excessive dependence on AI tools can weaken problem-solving, creativity, and independent thinking skills among students and employees.

* EDUCATIONAL INEQUALITY

Limited access to AI technology in underprivileged areas may widen the gap between students who have digital resources and those who do not.

To harness AI's benefits, we must balance technology with skill development and adaptability.

THE HEART OF EDUCATION AND LABOUR WILL ALWAYS BE HUMAN .

A Classroom Beyond Walls

Rohan studied under a streetlight. Every evening, when the small tea stall near his house closed, the yellow bulb outside became his classroom. His family lived in a single rented room, and inside was always noisy-his younger siblings, the television, and the worries of daily life. So Rohan carried his books outside, sat on the pavement and studied. His father was a daily-wage worker .College was never discussed at home; survival was. Yet Rohan believed education was the only road that could take him somewhere better. He attended a government school. The benches were broken, and sometimes teachers were absent, but Rohan never missed a day. He borrowed old guidebooks. He rewrote notes again.

Marks mattered, but learning mattered more. During Class 10, Rohan started helping at the tea stall in the mornings to support his family. He studied late nights and woke up before sunrise to revise. There was exhaustion, but quitting was never an option. When results were declared, Rohan stood first in his school. A local newspaper published his photograph. Scholarships followed. Today, he says, "Education did not change my marks only. It changed my thinking." Rohan's story reminds us that classrooms are not defined by walls, but by determination and that education remains the strongest light in the darkest places.

Physics' Playful Pledge

Pen गिरा, Gravity बोली,
"रोज़ का रूल है, sorry !
Newton हँसा Inertia के साथ
हिलना मना है, जब तक लग ना जाए हाथ।
Energy बोली, मैं गयी नहीं हूँ,
Form बदली है, यही कही हूँ।
Physics बोली धीरे से, सुन लो ज़रा,
मैं मुश्किल नहीं...bas मैं Logic हूँ भारा

Skills For Life : "Should Schools Go Beyond Academics ?

Marks and certificates are important, but they are not enough to face real life. In today's fast-changing world, students need much more than academic knowledge-they need life skills to grow into confident and responsible individuals. Skills such as communication, time, management, financial awareness, and problem-solving help students express ideas clearly, work well with others and face challenges calmly. Big question here is - Who Should Teach Life Skills? All-encompassing skills like these can't be left to learn in the home setting alone- especially since kids often spend more time in school. School doesn't mean doing merely teaching algebra and biology. No one can downplay the importance of good academics. Most schools still focus mainly on exams and rote learning. As a result, many students feel stressed and unprepared when they face real-life situations outside the classroom.

A BETTER WAY FORWARD

Schools can bridge this gap by including life skills in daily learning. Group discussions, projects, community service, sports and internships encourage learning through experience. Workshops on mental health and career planning can further support students. Education should not only create high achievers but also strong, confident and sensible individuals. "WHEN SCHOOLS TEACH LIFE SKILLS ALONG WITH ACADEMICS, THEY TRULY PREPARE STUDENTS FOR LIFE".

PHYSICS का फलसफा

Physic जब Force में आई पहली बार
बेसमझी का Force लगा Mind पे यार
उसकी समझ काश हर किसी को लग जाए
वरना Torque ऐसा लगे की Unstable Equilibrium हो जाए
Newton बेचारे सर पकड़ के सोच रहे थे
133 Pascal कैसे torr हो गए
तारे हैं इतने जितने संख्या Mole में ना हो
कुछ और हो तो हो मगर प्रकाश नहीं वो...जो Wave Particle
के Dual Role में ना हो
बड़ी Height तो कम Gravity हो गई
Dimensions uski (LT-2) हो गई।

My Little Dreams

I am just a student,
With a bag full of books,
Some unfinished homework
And curious little looks.
I dream of flying high,
Like birds in the sky....
Not only just to be successful,
But to make my parents proud too.
I am just a student with a dream so bright,
Each little step I take each day
Brings me closer on my way.
My goals are clear, my path is strong,
I know where I truly belong.
I am just a student today,
With hope that shines so bright,
And step by step, with steady faith,
I'll turn my dreams to reality,
new height and shining light.
